Frequently asked questions

I haven't received an email with delivery details. What can I do?

It's possible that the email has been blocked by your spam filter. Try checking your spam or junk folder and, if necessary, contact your IT department to adjust your spam filter settings to receive emails from Unite.

My order wasn't delivered within the expected delivery time, what should I do?

Don't worry, we'll take care of it. Please contact our customer service or complete a delivery date request form.

You can help prevent delays by addressing the following:

- Delivery attempts: Be available in the courier's delivery window to receive your order.

Why haven't I received all items of my order?

It's possible that not all items will be shipped on the same day. If provided by the supplier, a shipping confirmation with delivery information for each item will be emailed to you.

If you haven't received all the items or the correct quantity by the respective delivery dates, please follow our returns procedure.
