Value added. Value shared.

Catalogue and content

To successfully offer your products on Unite, you need to provide us with an electronic product catalogue either in CSV or XML format.

Here you'll find all the information you need to create, submit and maintain your catalogue, from the initial setup to uploading conditions for files and regularly updating prices, stock levels and product labels.

Detailed information is available for the following topics:

Catalogue and content
How to create your product catalogue

Catalogue and content
How to upload your catalogue via SFTP